River City Theatre Company

2012 Sponsorship Opportunities

Donations to River City Theatre Company play a critical role in keeping musical theatre alive for the children of the Sacramento region. RCTC is a non-profit organization dedicated to teaching and developing skills in song and dance that will instill self-confidence and self-esteem in children in a workshop environment. Your continued support and donations help us bring Broadway to our children. Donors are acknowledged in the show programs each production. Please consider a donation to the company.
